

PARK VALUES

1. RECREATION

3. ECONOMIC

5. ECOLOGICAL

2. AESTHETIC

4. EDUCATION

6. CULTURAL

For each of these statements, identify which value category is represented:

Research shows that the value of homes increases 3 to 7% if trees are around it.

People love to go to Gus's Icy Ball stand on really hot days in the summer.

People like to use the basketball courts in the park to stay in shape and see their friends.

Trees collect dust and other pollutants such as carbon dioxide from the air and release oxygen.

The creek in Highland Park draws people from all over the city because it is so beautiful.

Parks provide a wonderful place to play for people who live in apartments in the city.

Science teachers love to go to the creeks in Pittsburgh Parks to check out bugs and macroinvertebrates.

Many people love to hunt for deer in the woods.

There have been many reported sightings of owls at Riverview Park

People often own furniture made from trees, such as tables or chairs, that have been in their family for generations.

A great, money saving option for a summer vacation is to go camping in a National Park.

Allegheny Commons has so many historic trees that it is a destination for people who love nature.